

I I F A C E

GRINDING

Give the fans a round down about your stuff.

I can't say too much about my style because it is forever changing. I'm not South or crunk music, I'm just animated and something new. I'm not in the box because I can do a song with Jay-Z, Lil' Jon or something west coast and I won't sound silly doing it. I make it my business to adapt well.

What is the title of your album?

2 Faces 2 Every Story and it is dropping on the Black Russian Music Group. It is my freshman album but it definitely has a veteran sound. I got the mixtape in the street Jet Noise Volume Two which to date I have sold 50,000 units. Volume One sold about 20,000 units. The feed back is crazy. On the mixtape scene I was batting 1,000 so the people are waiting to get the new album.

How important is it to hit the streets with your music?

If I had to be a spokesperson for every underground artist, the number one rule is to grind. If you think grinding isn't a part, then you've already lost. I moved all of those units with no manufacturing company, because it is all done out of our office, and that's how I got where I am today - grindin'!

How long have you been rapping?

I would say since I was fifteen. I was switching back and forth from producing to rapping because I was producing first. I basically produced all the tracks on "2 Sides 2 Every Story" at Die Hard Recording Studios in Virginia Beach.

What made you want to pick up the mic?

I wanted to pick up the mic because I had a lot to say. I have a story to tell that people really want to hear because it is not watered down with chains, whips, and rims. You can't hate on something that is real.

Where are you from?

I live in V.A. and rep V.A. but I am originally from Jersey.

Do you do a lot of shows?

A lot of them is promo because you have to pay your dues. I've been on a lot of radio shows in the U.S. but I have done shows from here all the way to Dubai in the Middle East and the Bahamas.

When will the album drop?

September 4 is the official date to drop on iTunes and a few weeks later it will drop everywhere else.

Aren't one of your songs on a McDonalds CD?

Yeah! I have a song on their Summer Promotion CD. They thought I was a singer at first but when they found out I was a rapper they were a little skeptical at first. I gave it a shot and they loved it and I made the compilation. You can check it out @ www.theafterafterparty.com.

Who does the distribution?

One Disc out of Texas.

Is there anything else homie?

I want to let the people know that I am coming.

Scott Bejda

www.myspace.com/2faces2everystory