

THA DOGG POUND

W hat is the name of the new album?

Daz: It is called Dogg Chit!

What are the critics saying about the album?

They are loving it man! They are shitting all over it!

The cover looks like the 1995 album Dogg Food, was that intentional?

Yeah because that album was Dogg Food and this is Dogg Chit. We put our brains to this one and stepped up the game from the last one. I produced this one right here!

You produced the whole thing?

Yep!

What about guest features?

We got Jayo Felony, Dre'Sta, BG Knocc Out, Bad Azz, Brotha Lynch Hung, Too Short, and Snoop Dogg.

That's like a West Coast All-Star project!

Yeah it's just a little something but all them verses was for free though. It is just some street shit!

How was it to work with BG Knocc Out and Dre'Sta?

We are grown now but back then we were just fighting another mutha fuckaz war. It turned out real good! We put some stuff together and it is bangin'!

What is the difference from this album and your previous work as Dogg Pound?

I had an attitude on this album! I make songs for different times and went shit goes wrong we gotta bounce back. I thought some shit was going wrong with Cali Iz Active and that ain't what the public wants to hear.

The cops constantly fuck with Snoop, do they pull the same shit with you homie?

I don't hang with a lot of mutha fuckaz like that. I stay to myself! I be traveling hustling and grinding out of state with it.

A lot of people knock Koch, how do you feel about that?

It's all about making money and I see it as a new company on the rise. It is just like how Interscope and the rest of them did.

How doe sit feel doing another Dogg Pound album?

Kurupt: Oh it is great! Me, and Daz worked real hard on this one and actually as we are putting this one out we are working on a new album called West Coast After Shock, We are
